Hydrotherapy

Water, the ultimate element of wellbeing. Our hydrotherapy treatments involve the application, always through water, of thermal stimuli (hot/cold), mechanical stimuli (pressure and friction on the skin) and chemical stimuli (medicinal preparations that can be added to the water).

WATER RITUAL

50 minutes - € 55,00

Our signature hydrotherapy treatment begins with a full-body brush to stimulate lymphatic drainage and prepare the body for what's to come. A refreshing cold friction follows, followed by a 40-minute mummy wrapping to allow the body to reap the benefits of the heat generated.

GOOD NIGHT

80 minutes - € 80,00

Like any hydrotherapy treatment, the ritual begins with a full-body brushing that prepares the body for the treatment; a warm compress with lemon balm follows (lasting about 50 minutes) which promotes relaxation and sleep. The treatment concludes with a 25-minute massage using St. John's Wort oil, a medicinal plant known for its calming effects.

DETOX CON ARGILLA

50 minutes - € 55,00

Our treatment begins with a body brushing and continues with a soothing clay application to the abdomen, reducing inflammation and promoting cellular drainage.

What would happen if our bodies were deprived of sensory stimuli? Imagine yourself immersed in darkness, in total silence, with a weightless body, without any input from the external reality. This is the floatation tank or sensory deprivation tank. Lying on a bed of constantly filtered and mineralized water that keeps you suspended as if in zero gravity between heaven and earth, your body releases all tension and toxins.
